CODE OF CONDUCT AND DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Code of Conduct provides behavioral expectations for ABNN board members, volunteers and staff regarding integrity, honesty, ethical conduct and policy and procedural compliance. This Code of Conduct has two parts. Part I discusses the Conduct and Disclosure. Part II outlines the Conflict of Interest and Confidentiality expectations.

As a member of the Board of Trustees (BOT) I will:

- Keep Board proceedings confidential
- Become fully informed and actively partake in discussions before voting on issues
- Conduct discussions regarding confidential ABNN business outside of board meetings only with members of the BOT and relevant other parties (i.e., Liaison relationships), and will report back to the BOT.
- Respect and consider carefully other Board members' opinions
- Respect and abide by all Board decisions
- Bring significant issues impacting ABNN, our certificants, and candidates to the Board
- Represent the interests of all served, not only specific geographic or special interest groups
- Serve as a "trustee" ensuring effective management, financial security, and always operate according to the Board's stated objectives
- Refer complaints promptly to the President or Executive Director as appropriate
- Refrain from using the ABNN name or logo, or imply ABNN sponsorship or endorsement unless specifically authorized by ABNN; and then conform the authorized use to ABNN's name and logo policy;
- Identify and disclose all conflicts of interest involving my Board position, and abstain from voting on or influencing others regarding issues in which I am conflicted
- Review and respond to all electronic and print materials promptly and participate in all meetings and teleconferences. If an unavoidable schedule conflict arises, I will follow ABNN's excusal policy
- Differentiate when speaking on behalf of ABNN versus self
- Recognize the authority vested in the Board to act as the governing body of ABNN
- Not be pending results for or take a certification exam developed and implemented by ABNN during and for 2 years thereafter
- Not prepare any study materials towards an ABNN certification exam during their term and for two (2) years after their term expires, including but not limited to:
 - Planning, organizing, teaching, or participating in delivery of any part of a review or test preparation course
 - Review material directed toward any ABNN certification examination.

The ABNN Board of Trustees may, in its discretion, take all actions to enforce and uphold the Code of Conduct.

_____ I have the following to disclose (attach written disclosure as a separate sheet if needed)

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY AND FORM

The ABNN Board, Test Development Committee members and other individuals acting on behalf of ABNN shall be made aware of and conform to the following policies. The intent of these policies is to avoid any assumption or appearance of conflict of interest or unauthorized representation of ABNN. Conflict of interest is defined as, but not limited to, activities that oppose, detract from, or in some manner could become detrimental to ABNN as described in the Bylaws, policies, and procedures.

1. No individual has the authority to act on behalf of ABNN except with such authority as is outlined in the Bylaws or approved by the Board of Trustees.
2. No individual is authorized to use the ABNN name or logo or any terminology implying ABNN sponsorship or endorsement without prior approval of the Board of Trustees.
3. Individuals acting on behalf of ABNN shall not participate in any ABNN-related decision or action in which they have a financial interest unless the Board authorizes such participation after full disclosure of all relative facts.
4. Duality of interest or possible conflict of interest on the part of any individual acting on behalf of ABNN shall be fully disclosed to ABNN officials prior to entering into any formal relationship with any person, group, or organization. The undersigned shall not use any confidential information acquired through or from ABNN for personal profit or advantage or for the undersigned's employer's personal profit or advantage. The undersigned shall not accept or seek from any individuals or entity conducting or interested in conducting business with ABNN, a gratuity, favor, loan, or gift greater than nominal value beyond the common courtesies usually associated with accepted business practice.
5. Individuals acting on behalf of American Board of Neuroscience Nursing agree that ABNN maintains full ownership of all rights, titles, and interests, including the copyright in and to all items developed for the certification examinations.

Please disclose affiliations or interests that may present a potential or possible conflict of interest:

I have read, understand, and support the above Conflict of Interest Policy. I will direct any inquiries or concerns not specifically addressed in the policy statement to the ABNN Board prior to participating in any association or performing any act that may be considered as a potential or possible cause of conflict of interest to ABNN. I agree that I will maintain the security of examination materials at all times. I understand that I may be privy to confidential information about the examination(s), regarding item content and composition, as well as examination development and standard setting procedures. I agree not to divulge this information. I will not reproduce, divulge, or disseminate any portion of these examination materials. I also agree not to retain in any form, a copy or copies of the examination materials referred to in this agreement.
