

American Board of Neuroscience Nursing Certificant of the Year Award

Purpose:

To annually recognize outstanding achievement of a Certified Neuroscience Registered Nurse (CNRN®) or Stroke Certified Registered Nurse (SCRN®).

Nominees may be self-or peer-nominated. Peer nominations should be done so with permission from the nominated individual. Individuals will be notified to confirm willingness to proceed with the award application.

Application Submission Deadline: October 30, 2020

Award:

The award winner will receive a $500 monetary award and complimentary registration to attend the American Association of Neuroscience Nurses' (AANN) annual meeting where the award will be presented.

Eligibility Requirements:

- ☐ CNRN or SCRN for a minimum of one (1) year.
- ☐ Member of the American Association of Neuroscience Nurses (AANN).

Members of the American Board of Neuroscience Nursing (ABNN) Board of Trustees, American Association of Neuroscience Nurses (AANN) Board of Directors, and Agnes Marshall Walker Foundation (AMWF) Board of Directors are not eligible to be nominees, nominate individuals, or to provide recommendations for nominees.

Criteria:

The recipient of the ABNN Certificant of the Year Award will demonstrate outstanding leadership and contributions to neuroscience/stroke nursing through professional service, mentoring/education, staff/patient advocacy, and promotion of the CNRN/SCRN certification.

Submission Criteria:

The award recipient will be selected by the ABNN Board of Trustees based on a blind review of the following materials.

- ☐ Nominees must submit a completed, typed application along with a statement of how the nominee has met the award criteria
- ☐ Nominees must have two typed references from supervisors/colleagues describing the nominee's achievements based on criteria in neuroscience/stroke nursing clinical practice.
- ☐ The summary and recommendations must be no greater than 500 words, and electronic submission is preferred. Exemplars of the nominee's success can take the form of narrative, brief case studies, or reflection. There cannot be identifying information in the recommendation (i.e., no name of nominee).

Submissions:

Completed application must be received by October 30, 2020, and submitted electronically to Kelly Podkova, ABNN Senior Operations Manager, at kpodkova@abnncertification.org.
